

ZOLLHOF Talent (m/f)

You are a tech enthusiast, interested in the world of tech startups and passionate about making an impact by co-creating innovative solutions? Then our ZOLLHOF Talent Program is the perfect fit for you!

ZOLLHOF - Tech Incubator is the new home for startups and Digital Innovators in Germany. We help startups to successfully build and scale their business. We are supported by established incumbents, experienced individuals and a large network of innovators, and founders active in the German startup scene.

YOUR TASKS:

In our 3-months Talent Program you will work on innovative corporate solutions and you will identify new digital business models for our well-known Corporate Partners by unfolding your creative ideas.

Beyond your analytical input for external consulting projects and strategic decisions, you will support ZOLLHOF in discovering new opportunities. Moreover, you will actively work with our startups and help them in a wide range of topics.

YOUR PROFILE:

- Our Talents are not defined by discipline, rather by their mindset. An entrepreneurial spirit, a changemaker attitude combined with proactivity is what we are looking for
- You can be in business, IT, engineering or design. As long as you show evidence of your skills and accomplishments (and of course) you are enrolled in a study program, you are good to go!
- You find new technologies and digitization fascinating and you want to make an impact
- You are a Teamplayer, and you approach your tasks in a structured and independent manner
- You have an analytical way of working with a hands-on mentality
- Preferably you demonstrated your problem-solving competences and creative ideas in previous internships

YOUR BENEFITS:

- You have a lot of room for developing your skills and competences in a relatively short time
- Work on different projects with responsibility
- Maximize your learning curve by working on challenging tasks. Our experienced Mentors help you on the way
- Look behind the scenes of the start-up world and be an active part of it
- Gain relevant insights in diverse areas by working with ZOLLHOF, our startups and our Corporate Partners
- You have the opportunity to get prepared to start your own business
- Create a valuable network and future contacts, find your co-founder or next employer
- Internship certificate + Certificate from our Corporate Partners
